

{mosimage}

The Restricted area it offers one series of professional service to the inside of the managed to you from the Marine Announcer Port of Brindisi (in order to consult the services go to the link "
Enclosed Services
"
).

For being able to have use of the services of the restricted area it is necessary to record self sending the appropriate application form that to be used also only for one demanded information on the services (in order to compile the module go to the link "
Register
"
).

I use of the services of the restricted area involves periodic subscription whose varied cost based on the number of services demands and goes agreed whit the Marine Announcer that once received application form to contact the interest one.